We Are Better Together: The Jacobs Center and the City of San Diego Strengthen Partnership for Residents of District 4

I was honored to be a part of the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Jacobs Center and the City of San Diego. Along with Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer, Reginald Jones, President and CEO of the Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation and Valerie Jacobs Hapke, a board member of the Jacobs Family Foundation, we were able to come together to strengthen our partnership and continue development in the district.

The MOU establishes a public and philanthropic partnership to improve infrastructure, community and quality of life for the people in the area. The Jacobs Center have helped develop the Family Health Centers of San Diego, Walgreens Drugstore on Euclid, and the Chollas Creek Restoration Project, just a few projects that have changed the community into a vibrant destination for those who visit San Diego.

With this partnership, we can continue bringing economic development that our district needs and provide quality jobs to our community.

Congrats Mathew Gordon!

A special shout out to Mathew Gordon, one of my Community Representatives who received the "Heroes in the Movement" honor during the 2016 National Urban League Conference.
